

Tenant

AJANTA KAZA

Email: aka@onepumpcourt.co.uk

Call: 1998

Specialist in

Crime

Experience

Ajanta was called to the Bar in 1998 and practices in all areas of criminal defence work, encompassing serious public order offences, company fraud, mortgage fraud, money laundering, proceeds of crime and confiscation, revenue offences, drug trafficking and serious drug offences, murder, manslaughter, serious violent offences, armed robbery, serious theft related matters including aggravated burglary.

Human Rights

Ajanta is the recipient of the Liberty and JUSTICE Peter Duffy Award for Human Rights 2008, "...for her remarkable efforts to promote and protect human rights on a pro bono basis and in particular her exceptional work in support of freedom of expression."

European Court of Human Rights Litigation

Ajanta has developed a practice in human rights litigation and in an advisory capacity over the last decade. She has been instructed or assisted in a multitude of cases before the European Court of Human Rights concerning many of the principle Articles of the Convention and its related Protocols, representing petitioners against the governments of Turkey, Armenia, Azerbaijan and the United Kingdom.

Other Human Rights litigation

She has researched and drafted a number of complaints to UN Human Rights Committees and utilized the UN Special Rapporteur procedures in relation to individual petitioners in other jurisdictions, principally concerning CAT and the ICCPR. She has been involved in cases litigated before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights and before the African Commission on Human Rights. She has also drafted a number of amicus briefs assisting regional human rights tribunals on behalf of NGOs.

Human rights training

Ajanta has conducted a number of human rights training seminars, workshops and lectures for members of the legal profession, the judiciary, organizations and students in numerous jurisdictions around the world on international human rights principles and jurisprudence, United Nations mechanisms and regional human rights mechanisms, in particular the European Convention.

Advocacy training

Ajanta is a qualified advocacy trainer for the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn and teaches advocacy on a regular basis to pupil barristers. She has also given advocacy training to lawyers in foreign jurisdictions.

Human rights monitoring

Ajanta routinely carries out research, trial observations, human rights monitoring and fact-finding missions in many foreign jurisdictions; provides advice; and writes published reports and contributions to legal articles for NGOs.

Memberships

Executive Committee of the Bar Human Rights Committee

Legal Team of the Kurdish Human Rights Project

Criminal Bar Association

Lincoln's Inn